Summary

Skilled Computer Science and Theatre Performance student with experience in coding through electrical engineering courses and computer science courses at Bradley University. Also skilled when it comes to customer-to-employee interactions in everyday situations.

Fast learner with a dedication to promoting my future.

*Important Note: I personally have been diagnosed with autism, ADHD, Tourette's Syndrome, and Aspergers. I have been through many years of counseling and therapy to be as high functioning as I am today.

Willingness to jump right in, organized, motivated to learn, and works well with and learns from others on a team. I have been skating for the past few years now and have built a few boards. I also typically have the same aesthetic as a lot of the merchandise sold there.
